

Gospel Music Worship of America
Women's Council Annual Scholarships
Eloise Gaffney, National Women's Council Chair

2024 Application

Eligibility

The women's Council of the Gospel Music Workshop of America awards one (1) to three (3) scholarship(s) each year at the GMWA annual convention.

The scholarships are open to deserving female or male applicants of the GMWA. Applicants must be enrolled in and actively pursuing in the upcoming semester any higher education degree or certification program from an accredited institution, to include colleges, universities, trade/specialty schools, business schools, post-graduate programs, etc. On-line programs may qualify so long as they are part of an approved curriculum of a degree/certification program in which the applicant is currently enrolled.

All scholarships require a writing sample and certification from your Chapter Representative that you are indeed matriculating in a post-secondary education program. Applications will only be accepted from Chapter Representatives and their Assistant Representatives. Scholarship winners will be announced at the GMWA 2024 Convention Women of Worship Hatters Tea on Thursday, July 18, 2024. Recipients need not be present to accept. Scholarships are made payable directly to the institution(s) of higher learning.

IMPORTANT NOTE: It is most probable that scholarship funds will not post on the school(s) account(s) by the end of the first semester.
